

the 2nd annual

south amboy short film show

@ broadway gallery

141 north broadway; south amboy, nj

saturday, september 16th 2017 / 7:30pm

$10 general admission

tickets: <http://eventbrite.com> or 732-753-9485

Asbury Shorts
New York

Celebrating Independent Short Films Since 1980

Asbury Shorts New York

www.asburysHORTSconcerts.com

Contact: Doug LeClaire

Tele: 718.510.6929

eMail: DougLeClaire54@yahoo.com

PRESS RELEASE
-- FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE --

The 2nd Annual South Amboy Short Film Show “Reels” in on September 16, 2017
Join us at Broadway Gallery for an evening of the world’s best short films!

(August 29, 2017 > South Amboy, N.J.) Asbury Shorts, New York’s longest running short film exhibition and travel show, will partner with co presenters Synergy Productions and Media & Performance Collective to present The 2nd Annual South Amboy Short Film Show, an evening of the world’s best short films. This special screening of award winning shorts from around the world will take place on Saturday night September 16th at the Broadway Gallery with the first film blasting on to the screen at 7:30pm. Recommended for ages 16 and way way above.

Combining classic short films from the past with current global festival winners, Asbury Shorts provides a rare opportunity for audiences to view international honorees on a real cinema screen as opposed to You Tube, computers or smart phones. Oscar nominated director Jason Reitman (“JUNO,” “Up in the Air,” “Thank You for Smoking” “Young Adult”) calls Asbury Shorts: “The best short film show I’ve ever seen.” Highlights of the September 17th screening include:

“Reaching Home” a new drama from Connecticut based filmmaker Kenneth Murphy. Emmy & Tony Award winning actress Debra Monk (“Mozart in the Jungle”) stars as a recent widow who has to make tough decisions with her family while dealing with grief.

“The Lunch Date” returns to The Asbury Short Film Concert after many years. An Academy Award Winner for Best Live Action Short Film directed by Adam Davidson, who is now a prolific television director on such network and cable TV series as “Fear The Walking Dead” “Community” and “Hell on Wheels.”

“Dad in Mum” is a global festival favorite from director Fabrice Baracq of France. In the middle of the night two very young sisters are listening to some strange sounds emanating from their parents’ bedroom.

Synergy Productions is a full service production company specializing in creative solutions, video production and digital media. Their studio in South Amboy was built from the ground up to handle high-quality video pre-production, production and post-production needs. Synergy Studios is located next to the South Amboy NJ Transit station and features a 300 ft. production space with a 12’ x 18’ green screen.

Asbury Shorts “concerts” have been presented at: The Museum of Fine Arts Boston, Lake Shore Theatre in Chicago, Summer Stage in Central Park, N.Y.; The Director’s Guild Theater in Manhattan, The AERO in Santa Monica, CA; Algonquin Arts Theatre in Manasquan, N.J; Dante Hall in Atlantic City, Royal Festival Hall in London, U.K. and The Leminske Theater in Berlin, Germany to name a few of the venues where audiences have enjoyed these amazing films.

The Broadway Gallery is located at 141 North Broadway in South Amboy, N.J. Tickets cost $10 general admission and can purchased in advance at: www.eventbrite.com or by calling 732.753.9485. Tickets will be available for purchase at the door on the night of the show. Tickets are tax deductible.